To Madame Radmann, Madame Chapman and the other friends who presented Miss Martineau's tapestry to Mrs. Follen.

Dear Friends;

For this most beautiful testimonial of your affectionate regard, I return my grateful & humble thanks. I do indeed feel humble & yet proud, when I find myself associated in your minds with Harriet Martineau in the cause of Human Freedom.

As a token of your faithful love for both, and of your tender remembrance of the departed, for so I love to regard it, and not on account of my own merits, I can & do, joyfully as well as gratefully accept your precious gift.

It will be a legacy to my son which I hope may help to inspire him to noble deeds; so that whenever he looks at it & thinks of the life & the love of her who through long hours of pain wrought with her feeble hands these undying flames & fruits so beautifully, & remembers the names of the noble souls who united to give it to his mother, he shall dedicate himself anew to the glorious work ~~to the glorious work~~ to which they devoted their lives & all they possessed.

Once more, dear Friends, accept my heartfelt & respectful thanks for your kindness.

(Yours most truly & affectionately),
